Don't know much about history…

The California Association of Vocational Administrators (CAVA) was formed in 1967 and renamed the California Association of Leaders for Career Preparation (CALCP) in 1996. CALCP's mission is to generate, extend, improve and foster all aspects of career technical preparation.

The California Association of Regional Occupational Centers and Programs (CAROCP) was formed in 1972 and renamed CAROCP: The Association of Career and College Readiness Organizations in 2016-17. CAROCP's mission is to promote and support the regional delivery of exemplary career education, career development, and workforce preparation that contribute to student academic and career success and to the economic developments of California.

In 1988, the two organizations collaborated to host the first joint CAVA-CAROCP Fall CTE Conference which was held at the Desert Princess Hotel in Palm Springs. The conference was so successful that it became an annual event except in 2003 and 2009 when it was postponed due to statewide budget cuts as well as 2021 due to the pandemic. This year marks the 21st time the conference has been held at Rancho Las Palmas.

The conference has continued to grow each year, now with over 700 attendees annually, and offers pre-conference workshops, prominent keynote speakers, and breakout session presenters sharing best practices.

Please join CALCP and CAROCP in proudly commemorating our 35th Anniversary!

WELCOME TO THE 35TH ANNUAL CAREER TECHNICAL EDUCATION CONFERENCE

Welcome to the 35th Annual Career Technical Education Conference hosted by CALCP and CAROCP. The CTE Conference Committee is honored to have designed a CTE staff development opportunity for you. Since 1988, the two organizations and the conference committee have been dedicated to contributing to the collective learning experiences and fostering connections. The committee has worked thoughtfully and intentionally behind the scenes in order to make the CTE Conference possible. They have demonstrated year-after-year effective teamwork, collaboration, diligence, expertise, and cooperation. Their unwavering commitment over the years has been crucial to our success. We thank the committee for their compassion and dedication.

As we celebrate this incredible milestone of 35 years we encourage you to embrace the innovative learning and teaching practices shaping the current and future direction of CTE. There is a host of information and strategies to address the challenges in student learning, instructional methods, CTE funding, interagency support collaboratives, advances in technology, and what is on the horizon for CTE. Be curious, stay connected, and consider the possibilities.

We appreciate the presenters and exhibitors in sharing best practices, plus tools and techniques to help strengthen and encourage quality CTE programs. You are encouraged to network, exchange ideas and experiences to re-energize your professional team.

Thank you for attending and being a vital part of our celebration to acknowledge our journey over the past 35 years; your support has been invaluable!

POWERING FUTURE-READY CTE PATHWAYS WITH AI

AI-powered curriculum design that builds standards-aligned CTE curriculum in minutes — not months.

8 min FULL UNIT BUILD

70% LESS PLANNING TIME

THE CHALLENGE

CTE curriculum is built, not bought.

New pathways. Limited curriculum. Overloaded teachers — building 60–70% of their course content from scratch while juggling standards and certifications.

- Time-consuming creation
- Inconsistent across classrooms
- Delayed pathway launches
- Mapping to new standards

THE SOLUTION

Curriculum Genie builds it for you.

Standards-aligned, career-connected learning experiences in minutes — not months.

1. YOU INPUT → Pathway, grade level, standards & context

2. AI BUILDS → Full unit: lessons, projects & assessments

3. YOU TEACH → Export and use immediately in class

Not just AI. Built for education.

GENERIC AI TOOLS	CURRICULUM GENIE
General responses	✓ Built for educators
Isolated content	✓ Complete instructional units
No curriculum framework	✓ Standards-aligned (CA CTE standards)
Inconsistent outputs	✓ District-wide consistency
Not CTE or workforce-focused	✓ CTE pathways, PoG, UDL & workforce ready

USER SUCCESS STORIES

"It fills the gap every CTE teacher faces — building 60–70% of the class from scratch — and cut our lesson development time dramatically."

Superintendent
Valley ROP

Now a district partner · serves ~12,000 students across 7 districts

★★★★★

It's greatly reduced the prep time, and the cool thing is, even with less prep, the quality is still there.

PRE-CONFERENCE WORKSHOPS

Join us for our exclusive Pre-Conference Workshops on Wednesday, November 18, 2026, as part of the Catapult Professional Development Series featuring Dr. Sandra Adams and Julia Freeland Fisher. We'll be diving deep into two great topics!

Embedding Partners into Student Learning (Work-Based Learning and Classroom Instruction)

Dr. Sandra Adams, Catapult

Dr. Adams is on the Association for Career Technical Education (ACTE) national Board of Directors, has written four books about CTE instruction and meaningful teacher collaboration, and is currently a CTE Principal for a regional CTE Center in Indiana.

The Connection Imperative: Building Students Professional Networks through Social Capital

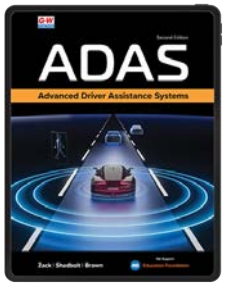

Julia Freeland Fisher, Catapult

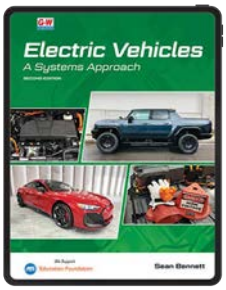

Julia Freeland Fisher is the director of education research at the Clayton Christensen Institute and author of the book, Who You Know: Unlocking Innovations that Expand Students' Networks. She researches students' access to and ability to mobilize peer, mentor, and industry connections. Julia started her career at NewSchools Venture Fund. She holds a BA from Princeton University and a JD from Yale Law School.

ABOUT THE KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 2026 - 8:00 AM

CARLOS WHITTAKER

Carlos Whittaker is a best-selling author, expert storyteller, and impactful speaker to all kinds of audiences– from auditors to teachers to non-profit leaders to dermatologists. No matter who you are, his message is for you.

Carlos uses his vast and varied personal life experience to captivate and engage audiences in ways that few else can. Whether your team is suffering from burnout, conflict, distraction, or disengagement, Carlos is sure to reinvigorate them with insight, humor, and inspiration.

With his person-oriented talks, How to Human and Moment Maker, Carlos will remind your organization that when we are good to ourselves, we can be even better for others. Humans do not exist in the vacuum of the workplace, so when we address the things going on in the background, we create a greater capacity for relationships, work, creativity, and patience.

Carlos will equip your team to become not just better employees, but better coworkers, leaders, friends, parents, spouses, and, most importantly, better humans. Join Carlos and countless others in the pursuit of being human together.

He and his wife Heather live in Nashville, Tennessee, with their three amazing children, where you can find them working on the family farm, planning trips around the world, and dancing to Single Ladies (seriously, Google it).

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 20, 2026 - 8:00 AM

California's Labor Market in 10 Years: Which Jobs Will Be in Demand in 2035?

California—now the world's fourth-largest economy—continues to lead in innovation across technology, science, entertainment, and more. But will that leadership hold over the next decade? And which middle-skill jobs will be most in demand by 2036? In this keynote, four labor market research directors from across the state will share insights on California's future workforce needs—and how educators, employers, and policymakers can prepare.

LUKE MEYER

Director, Los Angeles Center of Excellence for Labor Market Research

Luke Meyer is the director of the Los Angeles Center of Excellence for Labor Market Research (LA COE), hosted at Mt. San Antonio College in Walnut. Luke holds a Master's degree in psychology and evaluation from Claremont Graduate University as well as an MA in education from the University of La Verne. Prior to joining the COE team in 2017, Luke conducted research for the Department of Public Social Services, evaluating the effectiveness of various social programs and services. His current research with the COE directs community college students towards living wage jobs in growing fields, especially in middle-skill occupations that support the fabric of LA's labor market.

ABOUT THE KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

DR. TINA NGO BARTEL

Executive Director, San Diego Imperial Center of Excellence

Dr. Tina Ngo Bartel is the Executive Director of the San Diego; Imperial Center of Excellence, where she leads research and workforce development efforts that support the region's 10 community colleges. She began her public-sector career with the local Workforce Development Board in 2012, where she managed the business programs and research departments. In 2017, she joined the community college system and has since helped educators, employers, and community partners use data to strengthen education-to-career pathways, inform public investment, and improve training programs. Her work has helped regional organizations secure more than $45 million in grants to expand education and workforce opportunities. Tina also serves on the board of Civic Communities, supporting community investments that expand nonprofits' access to capital, strengthen small businesses, and promote economic opportunity in underserved communities.

EBONY JOY BENZING

Director, Greater Sacramento Center of Excellence for Labor Market

Ebony J. Benzing serves as director of the Greater Sacramento Center of Excellence for Labor Market Research, where she leads regional workforce research to support career education program planning, development, and strategic decision-making for California Community Colleges. Her work translates complex labor market information into actionable insights for educators, administrators, employers, and workforce partners.

Ebony has more than 16 years of experience in education, including a decade of direct engagement with students in and outside the classroom. She is committed to using data to strengthen connections between education and employment and to help learners access high-quality, living-wage jobs.

She holds dual bachelor's degrees in Biological Sciences and Psychology from UC Davis, completed teacher certifications at CSU Sacramento, and earned a Master of Public Administration from the University of Southern California. Ebony lives in Sacramento, where she enjoys spending time with her family and exploring architectural and interior design.

JACOB POORE

Director, South Central Coast Center of Excellence

Jacob Poore is the Director of the South Central Coast Center of Excellence (SCC COE), hosted at College of the Canyons in Santa Clarita. Jacob holds a master's degree in international economics from UC San Diego and has researched labor markets across the Central Coast and Southern California for nearly ten years. With higher education and research experience at both the community college and four-year university level, Jacob understands the importance of data-driven decision making to create, develop, and modify programs that prepare students for in-demand, high quality, living wage jobs. His current research aims to improve student outcomes by identifying labor market opportunities and pathways to living-wage jobs so individuals can live, work, and thrive in their communities.

- Amanda Baird, Coordinator, Orange County Department of Education

PRIMROSE - FAIRWAY COURTYARD

Building District-Wide CTE Leadership at All Levels

The strength of the RUSD CTE program is not just found in its equipment or funding, but in the architecture of its leadership from the bottom up. We will examine the specific roles that forge the bond between district initiatives, classroom execution, and community outreach. Attendees will leave with strategies and resources to help strengthen leadership at all levels in their organization.

- Jenna King, Golden State Pathways Program Grant Lead, Riverside USD CTE
- Nick Mugridge, CTE Liasion, Riverside USD CTE
- Laura King, Career Support Specialist, Riverside USD CTE
- Julie Christine, CTE Teacher, Martin Luther King High School
- Ariana Estrada, CTE Student Ambassador, Martin Luther King High School

SALON A

Score Your Pathway: Course Management with Three Scorecards

Whether you lead a Golden State Pathway or a California Partnership Academy, three frameworks can guide your work: the Golden State Pathways Program's Nine Outcomes, the CDE's College/Career Indicator, and ACTE's 12 Elements of High-Quality CTE. In this interactive session, teams will use all three "scorecards" to assess realistic pathway scenarios, compare what each framework reveals, and identify actions that can improve student outcomes. You'll leave with a crosswalk of the three frameworks and a plan for using it with your own pathway or academy so that more students graduate college-, career-, and life-ready.

- Michelle Triplett, Education Programs Consultant, California Department of Education, Academy, Apprenticeship, and Internship Office
- Jared Amalong, Education Programs Consultant, California Department of Education, Academy, Apprenticeship, and Internship Office

SALON B-C

Reframing CTE Literacy Through Emerging Technologies and Industry Language

The next evolution of CTE is not about exposing students to careers. It is about giving every learner access to the language, technologies, thinking patterns, and collaborative structures that define modern industries. Reframe literacy conversations from reading and writing in isolation to high-quality CTE where literacy becomes something larger and students navigate emerging technologies daily.

- Dr. Sandra Adams, Catapult

Be Here Now: The Practice of Presence

An interactive session on the lost art of being fully present, with your students, your colleagues, and the people at home. Simple, honest, and hands-on. You'll leave with a few practices you can use tomorrow morning, in the classroom and beyond.

- Carlos Whittaker, Keynote Speaker & Author, Premiere Speakers Bureau

SALON 7

The California Career Lab: An AI-Powered Career Exploration Revolution

Be part of the official launch of the California Career Lab, a new statewide system for career exploration. Learn how the Future of Work tool helps students understand how artificial intelligence will shape emerging careers. Discover how this platform and its AI tools were built specifically to support California CTE Pathways and Career Clusters.

Do More Without Hiring More: Five AI Moves for Managing CTE Grants, From Application to Compliance

Grant work doesn't slow down, but your headcount does. This session shows CTE administrators how to put AI to work across the whole grant lifecycle, both sides of the desk, so a small team can carry a bigger load without burning out or hiring out. You'll learn five reusable moves that work on any document: draft from your own source material, pull clean structure out of messy files, cross-check every output against the original so the numbers stay defensible, turn one source into many formats (narrative, board slide, update email), and save the whole thing as a recipe so the next cycle takes minutes instead of days. Each move is demonstrated live on the kind of paperwork that eats an administrator's year, applications and renewals on one side, compliance and reporting on the other, and each comes as a copy-paste card that works in any free AI tool. You bring the program expertise; the AI never decides anything. Before you leave, you'll map your own heaviest grant workflow to the five moves on a one-page worksheet, so Monday's starting point is already chosen.

SALON B

Aligning Regional Workforce Strategies with Emerging Industries

South Central Coast employers in emerging industries plan to add jobs over the next three years but have difficulty finding, hiring, and retaining qualified workers. Learn how K-12 and community colleges can collaborate to close regional workforce gaps in aerospace and defense, clean energy, high tech, and more.

- Jacob Poore, COE South Central Coast

SALON C

Apprenticeships in Los Angeles County

This workshop will provide an analysis of current apprenticeships and identify opportunity areas for apprenticeship expansion in Los Angeles County. The analysis is focused on occupations that lead to high-wage, high-skill jobs in demand by employers. Recommendations outline areas of opportunity for the community colleges to support and expand apprenticeship programs and initiatives.

- Luke Meyer, Director, Los Angeles Center of Excellence for Labor Market Research

Sacramento Update - Policy Issues in K-12 Education and CTE

This session will provide an update of current K-12 issues being discussed in Sacramento. Included will be a review of many of the budget and legislative actions taken over the last year. Presenters will also provide a preview of hot policy topics that will arise in the future.

BREAKOUT SESSION IV

SALON 7

Sector Selector: Finding Your Pathway Fit

This session provides a comprehensive overview of the 15 industry sectors, including the pathways and program models that fall under each one. Participants will learn how to determine which pathways make the most sense for a given student population, taking into account interest surveys, local labor market data, and available resources.

- Kathy Lucchesi, Education Programs Consultant, CDE
- Gregory Lomack, CTE Coordinator, Clovis
- Shelsy Hutchison, College and Career Engagement Specialist, Tulare COE

DESERT 1

Cleared for Takeoff: Integrating Drone Technology into CTE Programs

Drones are transforming modern society from a novelty into an integral part of daily life. This session examines how drones can be a stand-alone program or integrated into a wide range of CTE programs. It covers hardware, FAA Part 107 regulations, real-world industry applications, and scenario-based activities to build technical skills and safety culture.

- John Rudy, G-W Publisher

From Exploration to Enrollment: Engaging Middle School Students in CTE

Discover how a middle school career exploration model introduces every student to CTE pathways through engaging, hands-on experiences. Learn practical strategies to increase CTE awareness, inspire informed high school course selection, and create meaningful connections between career exploration and future workforce opportunities.

- Neda Arab, Vital Link

DESERT 3

Designing Local, Standards-Based CTE Units with Industry Partners & WBL

A hands-on working session: design a standards-based CTE unit rooted in your local economy, with real industry partners and work-based learning built in—using AI as a design partner, not a replacement. You'll leave having started a unit you can bring straight to your classroom.

- Lala Zhang, Learning Genie

SALON 6

The Complete K-12 CS Solution: Content, Platform, and Pedagogy

Discover Cengage's most complete K-12 computer science solution, powered by Qubits Learning. This session covers new offerings pairing high-quality instructional materials, a best-in-class digital platform, and research-backed pedagogy—giving educators everything needed to launch or expand rigorous CS pathways, from foundational to advanced coursework.

- Whitney Dove, Cengage School

SALON 8

Dream Catcher: Leading with Purpose and Impacting Change

Join the inspiring Steve Ward as he guides educators in discovering their purpose, and rethinking how they guide students in College & Career decision making. PRIMROSE - FAIRWAY COURTYARD

Scale Feedback, Save Grading Time with AI-Powered Evaluation Loops

CTE students learn by doing, but feedback is hard to scale. You'll build an AI-powered evaluation loop where students submit work, get instant formative feedback against your rubrics, and revise before you grade. Bring rubrics and student work; leave with async tutorials and a time-saving, working tool.

- Todd Benrud, Teacher, Grossmont UHSD

SALON A

Level Up: Game Audio Across CTE Pathways

Game audio offers an innovative entry point into music, media, and interdisciplinary learning. This session provides practical strategies for integrating sound design and interactive audio across CTE pathways, including music, ELA, and media production. Attendees will explore scalable tools, real classroom examples, and pathways from beginner to industry-level implementation.

- Erasmo Rodriguez, Music Teacher, K-12 CTE, Instructor – Arts, Media, and Entertainment, Santa Rosa Academy

SALON B

Mentoring the Transition: Transforming Industry Experts into Elite Educator

Transitioning straight from the industry floor to the classroom floor is one of the toughest shifts a professional can make. As a veteran CTE educator, you hold the keys to their success—but mentorship isn't just about helping a new hire survive; it's a powerful driver for your own professional growth.

- Amber Abraham, DSC Coordinator, VOE
- Donna Vollmer, DSC Director, Ventura COE

SALON C

Using GSPP Outcomes to Strengthen K–14 Pathway Alignment

This session explores how GSPP outcomes can strengthen K–14 pathway alignment. Attendees will examine strategies for partnership development, regional workforce alignment, and equitable implementation through a brief presentation and panel discussion. Presenters will share how different California regions use a common outcomes-based framework to guide this work.
